Conditions of Sale

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale, shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale, shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association, will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchase so made will be subject to the above Conditions of Sale, which cannot in any manner be modified. The Association, however, in the event of making a purchase of a lot consisting of one or more books for a purchaser who has not, through himself or his agent, been present at the exhibition or sale, will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be returned, if the lot in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at a reasonable charge.

 4. ALABAMA. Pickett (Albert James). History of Alabama, and incidentally of Georgia and Mississippi, from the earliest period. Folding map, and illustrations. 2 vols. 12mo, original cloth. Charleston, 1851
A SCARCE AND VALUABLE WORK, designated by Field as "a model of local and state history." Especially noteworthy is it on account of the vast amount of accurate information presented therein upon the aborigines of Alabama. As the author lived among the Creeks and Cherokees for years, his opportunities for securing data from original documents, &c. were many and of which he appears to have made ample use. Some of the plates depict uncommon Indian scenes drawn from life.
President Fillmore's copy with his library number on title.
 5. ALBACH (JAMES R.). Annals of the West: Embracing a Concise Account of Principal Events which have occurred in the Western States and Territories, from the Discovery of the Mississippi Valley to 1856. Compiled from the most authentic sources. Thick 8vo, half morocco, somewhat rubbed, joints weak. Pittsburgh, 1857
SCARCE. A compendious account of the principal events in the Indian wars of the Western States and Territories during the period treated.
 6. ALBONI (MARIETTA)—celebrated Italian singer). A.L.S. (third person). 1 p. 12mo. Washington, Dec. 13, 1858. To Millard Fillmore.

8. ALLEN (ETHAN). A Narrative of Col. Ethan Allen's Captivity, from the time of his being taken by the British, Sept. 25, 1775, to May 6, 1778, containing his Voyages and Travels. Written by Himself and now published for the information of the curious of all Nations. 12mo, boards, sheep back, sides loose and volume badly shaken.
Walpole, N. H.: Thomas & Thomas, 1807
The SCARCE FIRST EDITION with the Walpole, N. H. imprint. Contains List of subscribers.
9. [ALLEN (JOHN ?)]. An Oration upon the Beauties of Liberty, or the Essential Rights of the Americans, delivered at the Second Baptist Church in Boston, upon the last annual Thanksgiving. The third edition, corrected. 8vo, unbound, pp. 23; pp. 21-23 slightly damaged by fire, not returnable.
New London, 1773
Autograph of Samuel Wolcott on reverse of title. The dedication to the right-hon. the Earl of Dartmouth is a most passionate appeal for liberty, ending with "Wishing, from my heart, the inviolable preservation of the rights and liberties of the Americans, and the growing happiness of England."
10. AMERICA AND WEST INDIES. Winterbotham (W.). Historical, Geographical, Commercial and Philosophical View of the American United States, and of the European Settlements in America and the West Indies. Numerous plates. 4 vols. 8vo, half calf. rubbed.
London, n.d.
11. AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN (THE). A Quarterly Journal devoted to Early American History, Ethnology, and Archaeology. Edited by Red. Stephen D. Peet. Numerous illustrations. COMPLETE SET, from its commencement in April, 1878, to Nov., 1895, being vols. 1 to 17. Bound in 13 vols., 8vo, half morocco, some vols. slightly rubbed.
Chicago, 1878-1895
A VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION TO AMERICAN HISTORY, ETHNOLOGY, etc. Several volumes lack the titles, and like all periodicals it is sold not returnable.
Many prominent antiquarians have been contributors to its pages, and have written articles of great interest. A selection includes: Ancient Trails among the Rocky Mountains, by W. M. Byers. The Utes of Colorado, by N. C. Meeker. The Legends of the Miemac, by S. T. Rand. Cliff-Dwellers and their Work, by S. D. Peet. Myths of the Indians of Puget Sound, by M. Eells, and many others.
12. AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY. A series of publications of The American Antiquarian Society, commencing with An Address to the Members . . . on their Third Anniversary. By William Paine, Worcester, 1815, down to and including Proceedings, New Series, vol. III. part 4, Worcester, 1885. Numerous illustrations. About 75 pieces, 8vo, wrappers and sheets, uncut. As a lot, not returnable.
Worcester, 1815-1885
Includes Reports and Proceedings Nos. 1, 4, 5, 6, 6½, 9, 12 to 75. New Series, Vols. 1 to 3, together with catalogue of the library (1837).*

33. AMERICAN NAVAL ROMANCE. Riley (James). Loss of the American Brig Commerce, wrecked on the Western Coast of Africa, in August, 1815, with an Account of Timbuctoo, and of the hitherto Undiscovered City of Wassanah. Folding map, loose. 4to, half calf, joints weak, a few stains. London: John Murray, 1817

A fascinating narrative, almost as popular at one time as the immortal "Robinson Crusoe." Riley, the master of the brig, was a native of Connecticut, who went to sea at the age of fifteen years, and at twenty, was captain of an African trading vessel. He was captured by the Arabs while crossing the desert of Zahrahrah [Sahara], and the tale of his captivity and matters relative thereto, are of consuming interest.

34. AMERICAN PIONEER (THE), a Monthly Periodical, devoted to the objects of the Logan Historical Society, or, to collecting and publishing Sketches relative to the early settlement and successive improvement of the country. Illustrated. 2 vols. 8vo, half calf, somewhat rubbed, volume 2 lacks sig. 10 (pp. 109-120) and sig. 32 (pp. 373-384). Cincinnati, 1844

Only two volumes were issued. It is one of the most interesting of the Western periodicals, and contains a mass of information relative to the Indians, their manners and customs, narratives of frontiersmen, etc.

Quebec: Printed for the Author, by John Neilson, 1815

SCARCE FIRST EDITION, containing the single leaf of Errata in Vol. I. and the slip listing the "Number of Souls in Canada in 1784," &c. Also, one of 300 copies printed in 1815, but for some unknown reason, the work was not issued until eleven years subsequently, perhaps on account of some of Judge Smith's outspoken statements contained in the volumes, and which he thought might offend his fellow Canadians if published at that time.

Two curious facts in connection with this History appear; (1) the word "Finis" is printed at end of Vol. I. as though no additional volume would be issued; (2) the second volume finishes with the line "End of the Second Volume" as though another volume was to be added, but which, as far as known, has never been done.

148. CANADA. Bouchette (Joseph). Topographical Description of the Province of Lower Canada, with Remarks upon Upper Canada, and on the Connexion of both Provinces with the United States of America. Portrait, maps, and views. Thick 8vo, half morocco, somewhat rubbed and top of back damaged.

189. CAROLINE STEAMBOAT. Gould's Stenographic Reporter . . . devoted to the Recording of Important Trials for Treason, Murder, Highway Robbery, &c. Vol. II. Nos. 1 to 6 inclusive. THE TRIAL OF ALEXANDER MCLEOD. Bound in 1 vol. 8vo, half morocco, gilt, name on title. Washington, 1841
Contains the complete stenographic account of this extraordinary trial of Alexander McLeod, a subject of Great Britain residing in Upper Canada, who was arrested on the charge of having been concerned in the destruction of the steamboat Caroline, and the murder of several citizens, and of one in particular, Amos Durfee. It appears that during the trouble on the Canadian frontier in 1837-8—some time in December of the first-named year—a steamboat named the Caroline, belonging to a resident of Buffalo, was lying in the Niagara River at a place called Schlosser, with a number of citizens aboard who were reposing under the protection of American laws. During this period a party of Her Majesty's subjects came within the American lines, seized and destroyed the steamboat, killing several persons, among whom was Durfee. McLeod was arrested for this; and the work here catalogued contains the full account of his trial, &c.

248. CRESPEL (P. EMANUEL). Voyages du R. P. Emanuel Crespel, dans Le Canada et Son Naufrage en revenant en France. Mis au jour par le Sr. Louis Crespel. 16mo, half morocco, top portion of back lacking. A Francfort sur le Meyn: H. L. Broenner, 1752

THE SCARCE SECOND EDITION, of which, as of the First Edition, but a limited number of copies were issued. Emmanuel Crespel joined the band of missionaries and went to Quebec in 1724; ten years later he was ministering in the country around Lake Champlain. In 1736 he set out for France, but was wrecked on the Island of Anticosti, St. Lawrence River, whence, for some months, he was unable to escape. Eventually, he was rescued and returned to Quebec. His accounts of Indian customs including their torture of prisoners, make very graphic reading.

249. CREUXIUS (P. FRANCISCUS). Historiae Canadensis, seu Novae-Franciae. Libri Decem ad Annum usque Christi MDCLVI. With title-vignette, head-and-tail pieces, the RARE FOLDING MAP OF NEW FRANCE, on which is a small inset of the Huron country, and 13 copperplates, ALL BRILLIANT IMPRESSIONS, including the large folding plate of the Martyrdom of the Jesuit missionaries, Fathers Jogues, Lalande, Brebeuf and Lallemand—AS ORIGINALLY BOUND IN. 4to, contemporary vellum.
Parisiis: Apud Sebastianum Cramoisy, et Sebast. Mabre-Cramoisy, 1664

AN UNUSUALLY FINE AND LARGE COPY OF THE SCARCE FIRST EDITION OF THIS CANADIAN HISTORY, WITH PLATES, TEXT, AND BINDING IN MOST DESIRABLE CONDITION.

The work, founded almost entirely upon the Jesuit Relations as forwarded periodically to France, dates from the beginnings of their missionary labors in Canada in 1625, to the year 1656, and includes an abundance of detail concerning the Indian Tribes unto whom they ministered, their manners, customs, &c., with accounts of the sufferings and hardships of the Fathers, themselves, which our own Parkman so graphically describes in English prose.

The large folding plate of the murder of the Fathers named, which, in many copies is lacking, or, misplaced in binding, is here properly bound. The map contains one of the earliest markings of Niagara Falls, which is here called “Ongiara Catarractes.”

SUCH A REALLY FINE COPY OF THIS WORK AS IS THE ABOVE IS OF EXCEEDING SCARCITY.

250. [CRÈVECOEUR (J. H. ST. JOHN).] Letters from an American Farmer: Describing certain Provincial Situations, Manners, and Customs, not generally known . . . of the British Colonies in North America. Written for the Information of a Friend in England, by J. Hector St. John, a Farmer in Pennsylvania. With Index and 2 maps. 8vo, half morocco. London, 1783

These twelve letters, dedicated to the Abbé Raynal, describe the circumstances of an American Farmer, the Islands of Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard and the business of whale-fishing carried on by their inhabitants, with a letter to John Bartram on botany, etc. The pictures of American life induced many, it is said, to emigrate. Crèvecoeur was French Consul to New York from 1783 to 1793.

Paris: Imprimerie de Crapelet, 1801
- FINE COPY, WITH PLATES, MAPS AND TEXT IN CLEAN, UNSPOTTED CONDITION. This work is original with Crèvecoeur and appears to be a continuation of "His Letters from an American Farmer." No other writer has so thoroughly described the Indian Great Councils, or given certain other details relative to the Tribes as this author, who knew Washington from the time of the First Congress until his retirement to private life. The portrait of the First President was engraved by Roger after a cameo painted by Madame de Bréban in 1789.
253. CRÈVECOEUR (ROBERT DE). Saint John de Crèvecoeur sa vie et ses Ouvrages (1735-1813). Avec les portraits de Crèvecoeur et de la Comtesse d'Houdetot. 8vo, half morocco, joints weak. Paris: Librairie des Bibliophiles, 1883
Author's presentation copy with autograph inscription on half title.

Sketches of a Tour to the Western Country, through the States of Ohio and Kentucky; a Voyage down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, and a Trip through the Mississippi Territory and part of West Florida. . . . With Notice of an Expedition through Louisiana. Small 8vo, half morocco, joints weak. Pittsburgh, 1810
SCARCE ORIGINAL EDITION. The author performed the greater part of his journey on foot. Besides giving information of much that is new and strange from a personal standpoint, he includes many historical details of the places in the country through which he passed, including the massacre of the Christian Moravians on the Muskingum in 1782, the ancient fortifications on the Kenhawa River, the Indian tribes, &c.

C. H. Jasper Parish

Mr. Jasper Parish
Sir At request of Mr. Jerome
I repeat the same subject I wrote you when you was at Buffalo last Council - he says about twenty five years ago when he lived near Cayuga Lake there was a man which he understood it was your father-in-law - he employed Jerome to carry a letter to Niagara distance perhaps one hundred and sixty miles - After returned to Cayuga he did not receive any pay for his trouble - he does not know the man name - where he resides in what town or County - he wishes you would write to him and tell him that Jerome would be thankful to receive compensation as he is now old and lame, it would give him relief - The

257. CUSICK (DAVID). Sketches of Ancient History of the Six Nations Comprising, 1st. A Tale of the Foundation of the Great Island (now North America), the Two Infants Born and the Creation of the Universe; Second, A Real Account of the Early Settlers of North America, and their Dissentions; Third, Origin of the Kingdom of the Five Nations, which was Called a Long House, the Wars, Fierce Animals, &c. 36pp. 12mo, unbound, UNCUT, lacks the 4 woodcuts, and somewhat spotted.

Tuscarora Village: (Lewiston, Niagara Co.), 1828

THE EXTREMELY RARE SECOND EDITION, ALMOST AS SCARCE AS THE FIRST EDITION OF 1825. Cusick, called the Tuscarora Historian, was a full-blooded Indian of that tribe,—fairly educated, and a good doctor.

Pilling had seen but 2 copies of this particular edition, one in the Library of Congress, and one in the Boston Public Library.

THERE APPEARS TO BE BUT ONE OTHER AUCTION RECORD OF SALE OF THE SECOND EDITION IN THIS COUNTRY.

258. CUSICK (DAVID). David Cusick's sketches of Ancient History of the Six Nations. Illustrated. Svo, unbound, pp.35.

Lockport, N. Y., 1848

259. CUSICK (JAMES—probably brother of David). A.L.S. 3pp. folio. Tuscarora Village, April 13, 1828. To James Young, Seneca Mission School.

A long and interesting letter, almost wholly relating to missionary work among the Indians. ". . . I have something to tell about my nation residing at the Grand River. I understand they are going to build a meeting house. The Church of England Society are endeavoring to assist them. . . . the Methodists have established schools among the Mohawk, I believe they are in a prosperous state," etc.

260. CUSICK (NICHOLAS—father of David Cusick). A.L.S. 1p. folio. Tuscarora Village, December 30th, 1805. To the Agent of Indians afairs (sic) Jasper Parrish at Canandaguiea.

"I received your letter . . . about our goods if I had known some time ago I would have send my son David and [an] other boy with him so as to deliver our goods to bringed," etc.

Amsterdam: Paul Marret, 1701

Two volumes only of these scarce voyages, instead of four volumes, which constitute a complete set. However, Volumes III. and IV. are exceedingly scarce, rarely being met with at auction sales in combination with Volumes I. and II. Above item includes,—“Suite du Voyage autour du Monde, avec un traité des Vents, &c.” and “Traité des Vents, alisez ou reglez, &c.” Admiral Byron, Cook, and others were greatly indebted to this work.

From the library of Pontchartrain [Louis Phélypeaux de,—1643-1727, Chancellor of France in 1699] with his armorial bookplate in each volume.

262. DAMPIER (GUILLAUME). Voyage aux Terres Australes, à la Nouvelle Hollande, &c. fait en 1699. . . . name, he was one of the officers of the squadron commanded by Count d'Estaing which was sent out in 1778 by the French Government to aid the American Republic, and he gives here a most interesting amount of circumstantial detail concerning the meeting of the French fleet under Count d'Estaing with that of the English under Lord Howe, near Newport, Rhode Island, on August 10, 1778. A description is, also, given of the violent storm of same date which was the means of separating the opposing forces, doing considerable damage to the vessels of the French, which made it necessary, according to the author of this volume, that d'Estaing should take his fleet to Boston for repairs, instead of remaining in the vicinity of Newport and co-operating with Generals Sullivan, Greene, Lafayette, and others of the American land forces in another attack upon Lord Howe.

The failure of d'Estaing to assist at this critical period compelled Sullivan to evacuate Rhode Island when Newport was within his grasp. Lossing states that "nothing could have saved the British Army from capitulation had d'Estaing co-operated."

To Millard Fillmore, when president.
With reference to your presentation to the Queen, I incline to the opinion that the best course will be, to inform yourself from Mr. Buchanan, or if he has gone, from his secretary, who will be left Charge d'Affairs, what course was pursued in Mr. Van Buren's case. . . . Whenever you are presented to the Queen, Prince Albert will be present. . . . If you have a private audience, it will be in a small room, all persons—not excepting the Queen and Prince standing,—and after a little conversation, she will courtesy and retire, which will be the signal for you to do the same in the opposite direction," etc.

London, 1847
A narration interesting and valuable for its numerous first-hand particulars of Indian life and manners.

Sketch of the early life of Millard Fillmore, by himself, commenced Feb. 8, 1871.

I have been requested to state some of the early incidents of my life for the benefit of the Buffalo Historical Society, and in compliance with that request I proceed at once to the task.

Believing that an humble origin affords no just cause of concealment or shame, and certainly not, even when fortune has smiled, for vain boasting and self glorification, I shall content myself by stating that I am the second child and eldest son of Nathaniel Fillmore and Phoebe Millard. I was born in Locke (now Sumner Hill) Cayuga County, N.Y. on the 7th day of January 1800. My Father was a native of Pen-

321. FILLMORE (MARY A.—daughter of Millard Fillmore). Two A. L. S. [3 and 4 pp. 4to], from R. D. Marshall, Buffalo, N. Y. Both to Miss Fillmore and of a personal nature. Also printed obituary notice, 2 pp. 4to, from the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, July 28, 1854. Together, 3 pieces.

322. FILLMORE (MILLARD—Thirteenth President of the United States). ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT "GENEALOGY" AND "SKETCH OF THE EARLY LIFE OF." Together, seventy-five pages written in Fillmore's neat handwriting, in a small 8vo volume in red roan, lettered "Record."

Part One [pages 1-39] is "A Statement of Some facts and dates made by me, Millard Fillmore, in reference to my genealogy and life, at Buffalo, this 2nd of December, 1864."

Part Two [pages 100-133] is "Sketch of the early life of Millard Fillmore, by himself, commenced February 8, 1871." See Buffalo Historical Society Publications, Vol. II.

In addition his autograph appears on the inside cover of the volume "Millard Fillmore," December 1st, 1864, and on the opposite page "See 100th page for autobiographical sketch of early life."

A FILLMORE MANUSCRIPT OF GREAT INTEREST. Selection from which is as follows:

Genealogy.

My paternal ancestors were probably from England, as the name is found (spelled Filmore, Philmore, Phillemore, etc.) in the Parish records of Oxfordshire and the county of Kent, but we have no tradition as to the first immigrant to America.

It is said however, that my great, great grand Father was a resident of Ipswich, Mass. and that he was taken prisoner by the French, and after being exchanged was poisoned (poisoned) on board the exchange ship; and left a widow and son, John Fillmore, born March 18th, 1702 who was my great, great grand father. He had a passion for the sea and at 20 obtained the reluctant assent of his mother to go on a fishing voyage to the banks of Newfoundland. Soon after his arrival there his craft was captured by a piratical vessel commanded by Capt. Philips, but the vessel and the rest of the crew were released after taking him from the vessel under threats of instant death if he refused to go, and transferring him to the piratical ship.

He refused to join them and was consequently subjected to hard labor and cruel treatment; but after being detained some 9 months he and two others rose upon the pirates, killed some, and conquered and imprisoned others, and took the ship into boston harbor where some were tried, convicted and executed and others sent to England who shared the same fate.

His sufferings extinguished all desire for a sea faring life, and he finally married and settled in Norwich (now Franklin) Connecticut, where he died Feby. 22, 1771 and left a widow and 14 children. He was married three times and probably all the Fillmores in the United States are his descendants.

My grand father, Nathaniel Fillmore was the first son of his second wife Dorcas Day, and was born in Franklin March 20th, 1740, O. S. He was a farmer and married Hepzibah Wood and settled in Bennington, Vermont, where my father, his second son was born on the 19th of April 1771. His wife Hepzibah died May 11th, 1783.

My father Nathaniel Fillmore married Phebe Millerd, daughter of Doctor Abiathas Millard and Tabitha Hopkins, (born at Pittsfield, Mass. Augt. 12, 1861) and removed to Locke (now Summerhill) Cayuga Co. N. Y. about 1798 where I was born on the 7th of January 1800. I was the 2nd child and oldest son.

My maternal ancestors are said to have resided at Warwick, Rhode Island something like a century and a half ago, and tradition say the Millards (or as it was usually spelled Millerd) were of Welch origin, and that many have changed their names to Miller by dropping the final d.

My father about 1802 lost his farm in Summerhill by a bad title and removed to another farm in Sempronius (now Niles, about 2 miles East of Kelloggsville) in the same county where he removed West, and after stopping a short time in Niagara County, settled on a farm one mile South of East Aurora village in Erie Co. N. Y. There my mother died of dropsey, April 2nd, 1831, and was buried in the village cemetery. In 1854 my father sold that farm, which from his advanced age he was no longer able to manage, and removed into the village where he lived till March 28th 1863, when he died of old age and was buried by the side of my mother. He was twice married and had six sons and 3 daughters by his first wife and none by his second who survived him. His funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Hosmer of Buffalo and published in pamphlet form, and in the Buffalo Courier, etc., etc.

4to, New York, November 16, 1800. To Henry Cheriot.
"I am sorry that my departure from Albany prevented my receiving there your communication on the subject of Mr. Le Conteux. The facts which you state respecting him correspond with what I have always understood. This gentleman having emigrated from France to the U. States in a time of peace between that country and Great Britain, and having been fourteen years a naturalized citizen of this country, I am clearly of opinion, that he cannot rightfully be considered and treated by the government of Great Britain or those acting under its authority as a subject of France, and consequently a prisoner of war. My good offices with our government cannot be necessary to induce particular attention to the case of Mr. Le Conteux, yet, as he and his friends are desirous of it, I shall with pleasure in a private letter to my friend Mr. Marshall, bear my testimony in favour of these gentlemen," etc.

Andover: Flagg and Gould, 1820

Daniel Haskell, who has edited this Journal, says of the author that in all his nineteen years' residence in the interior of America, he did not once visit the civilized portions of the country. As, however, he was an indefatigable traveller through the vast wilderness in which he lived, he made good use of his most unusual opportunities for collecting valuable data regarding the Indian Tribes which he visited as a trader. In the copious vocabulary of the Cree or Knisteneaw language included in this volume, Harmon is said to have been assisted by his wife, a squaw of the Cree tribe.

393. HAZARD (EBENEZER). Historical Collections; consisting of State Papers, and other authentic Documents, intended as Materials for an History of the United States of America. 2 vols. 4to: (1), original boards, rebacked with cloth, entirely uncut; (2), half Russia, gilt. Autograph of J. Wilkinson on title-page of volume 2.

394. HEARNE (SAMUEL). A Journey from Prince of Wale's Fort in Hudson's Bay to the Northern Ocean, Undertaken by Order of the Hudson's Bay Company, for the Discovery of Copper Mines, A North West Passage, &c., in the Years 1769-1772. With the 9 plates as called for in the work, viz., 5 plans and 4 views, including the large folding plan of Hearne's Tracks, with views of the Prince of Wales Fort, Athapuscow Lake, &c. 4to, old mottled calf, probably re-backed, binding rather poor.

London: Printed for A. Strahan and T. Cadell, 1795

FIRST EDITION ON LARGE PAPER, WITH ALL THE PLATES, a portion of the large folding plan being rebacked with linen, which, together with the text, are in exceptionally clean and sound condition.

The author was the first white man to reach the Arctic Ocean overland from America, and is considered one of the best authorities on the North West portion of the country. His descriptions of the Indians there are remarkably vivid, and bring before the reader word-pictures of many savage customs, scenes of massacre, accounts of religious rites, &c., not often equalled.

The publication of this Journal was due to La Perouse, who captured Fort Albany, where the manuscript of Hearne was found by him, and later turned over to the British authorities with the stipulation that the Journal should be published, the result being the work here catalogued.

395. HECKEWELDER (JOHN). An Account of the History, Manners, and Customs of the Indian Nations, who once inhabited Pennsylvania and the neighbouring States. [Transactions of the Historical and Literary Committee of the American Philosophical Society, Volume 1.] 8vo, half morocco, one joint weak, and top of back damaged.

Philadelphia: Abraham Small, 1819

Comparatively clean and unspotted copy of a work that is SCARCE IN ANY CONDITION. Heckewelder's Indian narratives are known for their faithfulness and accuracy, the details of them having been gathered during a life of forty years among the Delaware and Shawnee tribes. In addition to the author's own account, this volume contains Heckewelder's and Duponceau's correspondence upon the Languages of the American Indians, and 14pp. of Words, Phrases, and short Dialogues in the Lenni Lenape language.

396. HECKEWELDER (JOHN). Narrative of the Mission of the United Brethren among the Delaware and Mohegan Indians, from its Commencement, in 1740, to 1808, &c. . . Interspersed with Anecdote, Historical Facts, Speeches of Indians, and other Interesting Matter. Portrait. 8vo, half morocco, name on title, and old writing on flyleaf and recto of portrait so that it strikes through.

Philadelphia, 1820

SCARCE IN ANY CONDITION. A faithful record of the details of this mission, its great success and its terrible destruction by the Savages, wherein nearly 100 inoffensive Christians were massacred.

440. INDIANS. Beatty (Charles). The Journal of a Two Months' Tour; with a view of Promoting Religion among the Frontier Inhabitants of Pennsylvania, and of introducing Christianity among the Indians to the Westward of the Allegheny Mountains. 12mo, half morocco, gilt, name on title-page.
London, 1768
SCARCE ORIGINAL EDITION. Beatty's naive conjecture that the ancient Hebrews and Indians are of one common root is one of the most interesting features of this lively journal.
441. INDIANS. Carver (John). Travels through the Interior Parts of North America in the Years 1766, 1767 and 1768. With 2 folding maps, and several plates. 8vo, full calf, gilt, top of 1 joint weak.
London: Printed for the Author, 1779
SCARCE SECOND EDITION, with a map of the First Edition published in London the year previous. Embodies much information relative to the Indians of the Great Lakes and a vocabulary of the Chippeway language. Because of the interference of the British Government, the author was ten years endeavoring to secure publication of these travels.
442. INDIANS. Long (J.). Voyages and Travels of an Indian Interpreter and Trader Describing the Manners and Customs of the North American Indians, with an Account of the Posts situated on the River St. Lawrence, Lake Ontario, &c. Paris: Sébastien Cramoisy, 1636

SECOND ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, with the alterations in the Indian phrase, p. 82, and the changes in the French text, pp. 90 and 91.

This document is known as Le Jeune's Relation of 1635, but is really a composite made up as follows: Relation signed by Le Jeune and eighteen other Fathers, pp. 1-112; the Huron Relation of Brébeuf, pp. 113-206; Perrault's Cape Breton Relation, pp. 207-219; &c. Contains the apparent discrepancy in the dates of the Civil and Ecclesiastical Privileges, although such is not so in reality, as Church and State, while using two distinct calendars, made the difference but three days instead of a year, as noted.

The introduction by Le Jeune is dated Kebec, August 28, 1635; Brébeuf's report is dated May 27, 1635, from Ihonatiria in the Huron country between Lakes Huron, Erle, and Ontario; Perrault's report, undated, describes the Island of Cape Breton (Nova Scotia), and the characteristics of its people; while the balance of Le Jeune's Relation is made up of unaccredited reports from members of the staff of missionaries.

Father Le Jeune describes the extent of his own mission from Cape Breton to Lake Huron, with the oldest "residence" at Notre Dame des Anges, near Quebec, urges that French colonies be sent to Canada, mentions his visit to Champlain's new settlement at Three Rivers, not far above Montreal on the St. Lawrence, &c.

Brébeuf, among other matters tells of the astonishment of the Indians at the sight of a clock, which they thought was alive, a magnifying glass, a magnet, &c., and, also, treats of the Huron myths of the Creation.

513. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Nouvelle France en l'année 1636. Envoyée au R. Père Provincial de la Compagnie de Jésus en la Province de France. Par le P. Paul Le Jeune de la mesme Compagnie, Supérieur de la Residence de Kébec. Small 8vo, full limp vellum, stamps of Bibliotheque Royale and Lenox libraries on recto and verso of title and one or two other leaves, a few worm-holes on margins, the inner edge-tops of some pages worm-eaten.

Paris: Sébastien Cramoisy, 1637

The Lamoignon-Lenox copy, with the portions of text on pp. 85, 146, 158, 159 differing from those in the Bancroft-Lenox copy.

A composite Relation called by the name of the Superior, Le Jeune, whose report consists of eleven chapters, but with the larger portion of the Relation by Brébeuf whose report is in two parts and comprises thirteen chapters.

Relation commences by describing the arrival of Champlain's successor, Montmagny, as Governor of New France, who, because of his unusual piety, is expected to be of great help to the missionaries and their work. Le Jeune continues with statements relative to the tricks of the medicine men of the Indians who have caused him much annoyance, emphasizes the fact of the increasing number of baptisms, "especially as the Indians are, since the coming of the missionaries, in wholesome dread of the fires of hell," speaks of domesticating the native elk and the training of them for beasts of burden, &c., &c., concluding in the usual manner by enumerating the events of the past year.

Brébeuf's report concerns the mission to the Hurons. It is in two parts. In the first he writes of the unusual and intense drought which prevailed throughout Canada in the spring and early summer of 1635, and mentions that the "sorcerers, or medicine men, practice all their arts to bring rain, but without success, and attribute their failure to the cross erected by the missionaries. The latter appeal, to their patron saints, and abundant rains are secured. . . . The result is a plentiful harvest, which increases the good will of the savages toward the black gowns." In the second part of Brébeuf's Relation much space is devoted to the "beliefs, manners, and customs of the Hurons," including "their solemn feast of the dead."

Rouen: Jean le Boulanger; Paris: Pierre de Bresche, 1638

SECOND ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION with the title identical with that of the First Issue down to the ornament which in this issue is "the monogram of Christ surrounded with rays of light," instead of the monogram between small angels, and with the altered imprint. Also, the erratic pagination of the First Issue is herein retained, including the entire omission of pp. 193-196, in Part I., and the mispagination in Part II. (Huron Relation) of p. 170 as 172. Although the pagination of the two parts is separate the signatures of both volumes (bound originally in one) are continuous.

This Relation, while known as Le Jeune's, includes the Huron Relation of 7 chapters signed by Francois Joseph le Mercier, and is dated Ilonatiria, June 21. 1637. It opens with the mention of Montmagny, Champlain's successor, continues with an ingenuous description of the fireworks with which was celebrated the feast of "the glorious patriarch, Saint Joseph" [see folding plate p. 18. Vol. I.] and notices in the customary manner the many baptisms, conversions, &c., the "sale on the sly" of liquor to the Indians, the success of the Indian schools, and much other material, including account of the battle among the Indians at Three Rivers, near Quebec.

In the Huron Relation by Le Mercier, considerable space is devoted to the description of the epidemic of small-pox throughout Canada, and the Fathers' efforts to ameliorate the conditions thereof, while, at the same time, they endeavor to learn what they can of the native language. In the final chapter of the Relation, Le Mercier relates at length of the "happy conversion of Tsiondaentaha, the first adult savage baptized in good health in the Huron country."

515. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Nouvelle France en l'année 1638. Envoyée au R. Père Provincial de la Compagnie de Jésus en la Province de France. Par le P. Paul le Jeune de la mesme Compagnie, Supérieur de la Résidence de Kébec. Small 8vo, boards, morocco back, old writing and library stamp on title, and a line of writing on Table des Chapitres.

Paris: Sébastien Cramoisy. 1638

SECOND ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, with the name "Paul" for "Paule" on title, the mispagination of Le Jeune's Relation at pp. 23 and 35, and the signature on final page in the "Permission,"—"Estienne Binet" in place of "Bstienne Einet," as in the First Issue.

There are two parts to this Relation, each with the usual separate pagination, viz. (1) by Le Jeune, Three Rivers, August 25, 1638, and (2) by Le Mercier, Ossossané, June 9, 1638.

The first notable event mentioned is the establishment of the "Residence" of St. Joseph at Sillery, four miles above Quebec, the baptism of many savages in the "sacred waters" at Three Rivers, &c.

Le Mercier's report concerns the Huron Indians, and the heartbreaking experiences the missionaries go through because of the altered attitude of the Indians who "close their cabin doors upon the priests" and accuse them of manufacturing "charms to kill the natives," and who are attacked as the authors of the great plague then afflicting the tribes.

516. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Nouvelle France en l'année 1639. Envoyée au R. Père Provincial de la Compagnie de Jésus en la Province de France. Par le P. Paul le Jeune de la mesme Compagnie. Supérieur de la Résidence de Kébec. Small 8vo, full limp vellum, some headings and outer edges slightly cut into.

Paris: Sébastien Cramoisy, 1640

FIRST ISSUE OF THE SECOND EDITION, with the changed spelling of the following:—"honneste," instead of "honeste," p. 18, line 3; "donner," in place of "doner," p. 23, line 2; "France," instead of "Frace," p. 35, line 24; "oui," for "ouy," p. 42, line 18; "causons," for "causos," p. 49, line 15; and "loy," for "Loy," p. 65, line 15.

Another composite Relation consisting of two parts, one by Le Jeune, who refers chiefly to the missionary work on the St. Lawrence, dated Sillery, September 4, 1639; and one by Lalemant about the Indians, dated Ossossané, June 7, 1639.

Le Jeune makes much of the demonstrations of rejoicing at Quebec over the birth of the French King's son, how there were many cannon salutes, fireworks, illuminations, and a brilliant procession of French and Indians, gives considerable data relative to the foundation of the Ursuline convent in the same city by Madame de la Peltre (Marie Madeleine de Chauvigny), adds details concerning the superstitious beliefs current among the aborigines, their customs, and other interesting information.

Lalemant's report describes the physical aspects of the country in which he is laboring, the difficulties attending his work, the hopeful prospect thereof, the number of assistant priests with him, their daily occupations, &c.

517. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Nouvelle France en l'année M.DC.XL. Envoyée au R. P. Provincial de la Compagnie de Jésus de la Province de France. Par le P. Barthélémy Vimont, de la mesme Compagnie, Supérieur de la Résidence de Kébec. 2 vols. (Vol. I, pp. 1-197; Vol. II. pp. 1-196), small 8vo, boards, morocco backs, a number of lower corners of Vol. I, eaten away and many portions of leaves in Vol. II waterstained.

Paris: Sébastien Cramoisy, 1641

ORIGINAL EDITION with the mispagination in Lalemant's section,—pp. 9, 80, and 193-198, here numbered 10, 74, and 191-196.

Vimont, who succeeded Le Jeune as Superior, seems to have been the editor only of this Relation, as Part I. is signed by Le Jeune, and is dated September 10, 1640, while Part II. (Huron Report) is by Jerome Lalemant, dated May 27, 1640, with a postscript of August 3d, in which he announces the death of one of their chief converts,—Joseph Chihwatenhwa.

Among other matters, Le Jeune notes the arrival of additional Ursuline nuns, the cessation of the epidemic of smallpox, the renewal of the efforts to cultivate the land, and enumerates the Indian tribes known to the French from Labrador to Hudson's Bay, and from the Mississippi to Virginia, mentioning in this connection the arrival on the St. Lawrence of an Englishman who is "searching for a route through these countries to the sea of the North," and who, in the course of his narrative, speaks of Mexico and New Mexico.

Lalemant relates the course of events at St. Joseph, in the Huron country, which report is largely made up of extracts from letters of Chastellain and Brébenf, tells of the founding of the mission of St. Jean Baptiste, described by Champlain as the "Cahiague," situated near Lake Simcoe, and ends with an account of the new mission to the Tobacco Nation at the south of Georgian Bay,—"the richest of all the missions."

518. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Nouvelle France es années 1640 et 1641. Envoyées au R. Père Provincial de la Compagnie de Jésus, de la Province de France. Par le P. Barthélemy Vimont de la mesme compagnie, Supérieur de la Résidence de Kébec. Small 8vo, boards, morocco back, a few worm-holes on margins, and some portions of leaves waterstained.

Paris: Sébastien Cramoisy, 1642

Composite Relation of two parts, edited by Vimont, but written by Fathers Le Jenne and Lalemant, and carried personally to Paris by Le Jenne.

Part I. opens with description of the work of the Ursulines, the progress of affairs at St. Joseph de Sillery, states that Three Rivers has become a rendezvous for all the tribes of the upper St. Lawrence and Ottawa region, and notes the arrival in the summer of 1641 of the Sieur de Maisonneuve and the first installment of the new colony at Montreal with Father De la Place.

Part II. contains a chapter each on the Huron missions, one on the prudent and just treatment of the savages by Montmagny, who all "admire his liberality, but fear his sternness," mentions the continued depredations of the Iroquois, the success among the Indians of the Tobacco Nation, and the establishment of a new mission to the Neutral Indians who occupy the land between the west end of Lake Ontario and the northeast end of Lake Erie, concluding with a statement of the work among the Nipissing Indians, and a specimen of the Huron language, with French translation, for which Lalemant selects a marvellous "communion" between the Almighty and a Christianized chief.

519. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Nouvelle France en l'année 1642. Envoyée au R. P. Jean Filleau, Provincial de la Compagnie de Jésus en la Province de France. Par le R. P. Barthélemy Vimont de la mesme Compagnie, Supérieur de la Résidence de Kébec. Small 8vo, boards, calf back, gilt, Lenox Library duplicate, with stamp on verso of title.

Paris: Sébastien Cramoisy, 1643

SECOND ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, with the names "L'Alemand" and "Vincent," on pp. 89 and 91, corrected to "Lalemant" and "Vimont." In other respects the collation is practically identical with that of the Lamoignon copy in the New York Public Library.

Relation includes the reports of Vimont, October 4, 1642, and Lalemant, June 10, 1642. As usual, the Iroquois have given the Fathers much trouble, acting generally like fiends, which leads the missionaries to but one conclusion, that "peace must be made with these barbarians, or they must be destroyed." For the first time in Quebec, a young Christian Indian girl is flogged in public because she talked with a Pagan lover, contrary to the command of her parents. Many interesting points are given concerning the work of the hospital at Quebec, as well as a description of a colony just established on the Island of Montreal, under the Sieur de Maisonneuve, and the erection of Fort Richelieu, on the St. Lawrence, not far above Montreal.

Lalemant describes an eclipse of the moon and its effects upon the Indians, and presents many details relative to the savage beliefs and superstitions, the "impious feasts and the instability of marriages," ending with a narration of the Algonkin celebration, the "feast of the dead," graphically depicting its special rites,—among them "a ballet in three parts, and a competition in climbing a greased pole."

520. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Nouvelle France en l'année 1642 & 1643. Envoyée au R. P. Jean Filleau Provincial de la Compagnie de Jésus, en la Province de France. Par le R. P. Barthélemy Vimont, de la mesme Compagnie, Supérieur de toute la Mission. Small 8vo, full dark-red levant morocco, inside gilt borders, gilt edges, by Gruel. Paris: Sébastien & Gabriel Cramoisy, 1644

FIRST EDITION, but not First Issue, as correction has been made in the original pagination on pp. 306-307.

Written probably the latter part of the year 1643, as the Relation reconnts affairs that took place in that year and the year preceding. Vimont, the narrator, opens his account with a description of the prosperity of the French colony; the grief of its members at the death of Louis XIII. and of Cardinal Richelien, both of whom had been ardent supporters of the Canadian missions, the Ursoline Seminary in Quebec, the residence at Sillery, a short distance from the first-named city, and how the Indians spent the year there, events at Three Rivers, Fort Richelieu, Montreal, the captivity of Father Jogues by the Iroquois, his sufferings, and his eventual release through the aid of the Dutch commandant at Rensselaerswyck, near Albany, &c.

Many interesting details are included of the Indian tribes between Lake Huron and the Gulf of St. Lawrence, both Christian and Savage, and in addition to the Iroquois, are mentioned the names of the Atticamegues, the Hurons, Montagnais, Algonkins, Abenakis, and others.

Appended to this Relation is the "Declaration of Messieurs, the Directors and Associates in the Company of New France," that "the Jesuit Fathers are not associated in the said company of New France, directly or indirectly, and have no part in the traffic of merchandise which is carried on by it,—thus officially exonerating the missionaries from any commercial connection with the fur trade.

521. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Nouvelle France es années 1643-1644. Envoyée au R. P. Jean Filleau. Provincial de la Compagnie de Jésus, en la Province de France. Par le R. P. Barthélemy Vimont, de la mesme Compagnie, Supérieur de toute la Mission. 2 vols. small 8vo, boards, morocco backs, portions of upper margins of a number of leaves badly wormed and worm-holes in other portions of margins.

Paris: Sébastien & Gabriel Cramoisy, 1645

This Relation collates with the Bancroft-Lenox copy in most particulars, but in two instances, at least, collates with the Lamoignon-Lenox copy, viz.—p. 67, lines 22 and 24, where the spelling of "appaiser" and "Chappelet," are as in that volume.

Two parts comprise this Relation, (1) by Vimont, Quebec, September 5, 1644, and (2) by Lalemant, Des Hurons, September 21, 1643. The first draft of this Relation never reached Paris as it was destroyed by the Iroquois into whose hands it fell through the captnre of Father Jogues. Nearly a fourth of Vimont's account is occupied by the conversions, religious experiences, and pious acts of the Christian Indians at Sillery. Continuing, Vimont describes the Huron Seminary at Three Rivers, the capture of Father Bressani by the Iroquois, the growing mission of Tadonssac, the succession of Butenex by De Qnen, &c.

Part II. contains news of the capture of Father Jogues and others, of a sanguinary attack by the Hurons upon the Mascontens, "a nation more populous than the Neutrals, Hurons, and Iroquois, combined, and who speak an Algonkin dialect." A supplementary letter from Lalemant, dated March 31, 1644, brings up to date the account of the affairs of the Huron mission.

522. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé de plus Remarquable és Missions des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus, en la Nouville France, es années 1645 & 1646. Envoyée au R. P. Provincial de la Province de France. Par le Supérieur des Missions de la Compagnie. Small 8vo, full maroon morocco, with the Lenox arms stamped in gilt in centres of both covers, gilt edges, several library stamps on title and final page, Lenox Library duplicate stamp on verso of title, and a number of small worm-holes on margins, some repaired. Paris: Sébastien & Gabriel Cramoisy, 1647

SECOND ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, with the Indian words "Tapoué Nama," line 10, p. 176, instead of "Tap de Nama," as in First Issue, where the syllable "ué" is taken for "de."

The two parts of this Relation were writteu (1) by Jerome Lalemant, Quebec, October 28, 1646, who in that year succeeded Vimont as superior of the order in Cauada, and (2) by Ragueneau, Des Hurons, May 1, 1646.

Lalemant recouets the "blessed deaths of Fathers De Noué and Massé, the former of whom was frozeu to death on the St. Lawrence in an endeavor to accomplish an errand of mercy, glowingly describes the devotion of the savages at Tadousac, at the mouth of the Saguenay River, the graciousness of the Queeu of France, who has sent to the Sillery Indians a portrait of herself, her husband and her son, &c.

Ragueneau speaks of the Mohawk Indians as the only ones that are peaceful and live up to their treaty,—of Father Bressani, who reaches Huronia,—after his release from captivity by the Iroquois,—of several new tribes of Iudians who signify their intention of becoming Christians, viz., the Archiregorians aud the Nipissiriniams, who dwell around the distant Great Lakes,—and of the treaty of peace betweeu the Besiamites up towards Labrador and the Miemacs south of them across the mouth of the St. Lawrence iu Acadia.

523. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé de plus remarquables és Missions des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus, en la Nouvelle France, sur le grande fleuve de S. Laurens en l'année 1647. Envoyée au R. P. Provincial de la Province de France par le Supérieur des Missions de la mesme Compagnie. Small 8vo, full limp vellum.
leather label, old writing and several library stamps on title, slight repair thereto, small mend to one corner of final leaf, and a number of lower corners stained.

Paris: Sébastien & Gabriel Cramoisy. 1648

This Relation is composed of but a single part, written by Jerome Lale-mant as Superior, and is dated Quebec, October 20, 1647.

Much space is here given to the renewed incursions of the terrible Iroquois, their capture of Father Jogues, his labors, sufferings, and death.

Meutions at some length concerning the work of Father Druillettes, who has beguu a mission among the Abenakis, the lower end of whose territory extended well down into the northeru part of Maine, speaks of the journey of De Quen into the country of the Porcupine tribe, who inhabited the laud around the head-waters of the Saguenay, and concludes with an historical sketch of the Jesuit mission at Miscou, Nova Scotia.

524. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce Qui s'est passé en la Mission des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus aux Hurons, pays de la Nouvelle France, es années 1648 & 1649. Envoyée au R. P. Hierosme Lale-mant, Supérieur des Missions de la Compagnie de Jésus, en la Nou-uelle France, Par le P. Paul Ragueneau, de la mesme Compagnie.

Pour la faire tenir au R. P. Provincial de la mesme Compagnie.
Small 8vo, flexible boards, repair to final leaf, covers loose.

Paris: Sebastien et Gabriel Cramoisy, 1650

THE RARE FIRST ISSUE, WITH THE VIGNETTE ON TITLE, AND 103 PAGES.

Contains the report of Ragueneau, of the Huron mission, for the year ending May 1, 1649, and an account of the capture of the mission village of St. Joseph, on Lake Simcoe, the murder of Father Daniel, who heroically lays down his life in an attempt to save his converts, and in which capture, 700 Christian Indians are killed.

Ragueneau also speaks of the attack by 1000 Iroquois on the village of St. Ignace, about ten miles southeast of Ste. Marie, at the end of Georgian Bay, wherein Fathers Jean de Brébeuf and Gabriel Lalemant lose their lives.

To this Relation is appended a closing letter by Chaumonot.

525. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce Qui s'est passé en la Mission des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus aux Hurons, pays de la Nouvelle France, és années 1648 & 1649. Envoyée au R. P. Hierosme Lalemant, Supérieur des Missions de la Compagnie de Jésus, en la Nouvelle France. Par le P. Paul Ragueneau, de la mesme Compagnie. Pour le faire tenir au R. P. Provincial de la mesme Compagnie. Small 8vo, boards, morocco back, outer edges gilt, old writing on title.

Paris: Sebastien et Gabriel Cramoisy, 1650

SCARCE SECOND ISSUE, with typographical ornament on title and 116 pages.

This Relation as originally published ends with Chaumonot's letter, as in the copy preceding. In this issue, however, additional news is incorporated which is brought by a later vessel from Canada, and which tells of the desertion of the village of Ste. Marie by the Fathers and their Indian converts.

526. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé de plus remarquable és Missions des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus en la Nouvelle France, es années 1650 & 1651. Envoyée au R. P. Provincial de la Province de France. Par le P. Paul Ragueneau, Supérieur des Missions de la mesme Compagnie. Small 8vo, boards, old writing on, and slight repairs to, title-page, and some stains on margins.

Paris: Sebastien et Gabriel Cramoisy, 1652

A short Relation entirely by Ragueneau, followed by a Journal and a Letter by Buteux.

Relation is dated Quebec, October 28, 1651, and in it is noted the arrival of the new governor of Canada, Jean de Lauson, with assistance for the struggling colony, the destruction by fire of the Ursuline convent at Quebec, the settling of the Hurons on Orleans Island in the St. Lawrence, a short distance above Quebec, the great success of the wheat crop, especially in the vicinity of Montreal, &c.

Father Buteux's Journal is an account of his mission to the Attikamé-gues in 1651.

527. JESUIT RELATIONS. Breve Relatione d'alcune missioni de' PP. della Compagnia di Giesù nella Nuova Francia del P. Francesco Giuseppe Bresciani della medesima compagnia, all'Eminentiss, e Reverendiss, Sig. Card. de Lugo. Small 4to, full limp vellum, large portion of title-page water-stained and library stamps inked out thereon, a number of pp. foxed, and small worm-holes on lower corners of leaves.

Macerata: Heredi di Agostino Grisei, 1653

SCARCE ORIGINAL EDITION, with the break in pagination at signatures B and B2.

This Relation was written more for perusal by the "faithful" of Italy,—those outside the strictly ecclesiastical circles,—who were deprived of the reading of the interesting narratives of these Canadian missionaries because of their being written in French.

The author of this Relation had labored in Huronia, an extensive district lying between Lake Huron and Georgian Bay on the north and west, and Lakes Simcoe and Ontario on the east and south, from 1645 to 1649, and he gives in an abridged form, and largely from Ragueneau's Relation of 1648, accounts of the Indians, the work of the Jesuits among them, presenting, also, many details of the customs, dress, government of the savages, &c., especially of the Hurons and Algonkins.

Bressani makes some curious comments relative to the tides on the American coasts, the vast abundance of water in the new continent, and the declination of the magnetic needle in sailing to the new clime, and thus concludes the first part of his Relation.

Parts two and three are largely taken up with a description of "the conversion of the Canadians to the Faith," the efforts adopted by France towards that object, the hindrance Bressani experiences in his work among the Indians, his sufferings in captivity, his final ransom by the Dutch, and gives the names of the Fathers who have lost their lives in the good work, including Fathers Anne de Noue, Isaac Jogues, Jean de Brébeuf, and others.

528. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Mission des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus au pays de la Nouvelle France, depuis l'Été de l'année 1652 jusques à l'Été de l'année 1653. Envoyée au R. P. Provincial de la Province de France, par le Supérieur des Missions de la mesme Compagnie. Small 8vo, boards, morocco back. Paris: Sébastien et Gabriel Cramoisy, 1654

François le Mercier, the new superior, sends this Relation from Quebec, October 29, 1653. The first chapter, however, is not written by him, but by the Paris editor who narrates the capture by the English of the ship by which the Relation was conveyed to France, how the messengers' papers were seized and most of them destroyed and as a consequence the impossibility of completing the report for the year.

Le Mercier mentions that unusual aid was sent to Montreal in the shape of a hundred men who "are not only artisans but brave soldiers as well," relates that preliminary negotiations for a general peace have been opened with the Indians, including the Iroquois, the practical ruination of the fur trade on account of the attitude of the tribes saying "that for a year, the Montreal warehouse has not bought a single Beaver-skin from the savages."

529. JESUIT RELATIONS. [Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Mission des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus, en la Nouvelle France, es années 1653 & 1654. Envoyée au R. P. Nicolas Royon, Provincial de la Province de France. Par le R. P. François le Mercier, Supérieur des Missions de la mesme Compagnie.] Small 8vo, boards, morocco back, the greater portion of title-page missing.

[Paris: Sébastien & Gabriel Cramoisy, 1655]

With the exception of the last chapter, this Relation is written by Le Mercier, and is dated Quebec, September 21, 1654. It tells of the success of Father Le Moyne's journey to the Iroquois country, the mission to the Onandagas in what is now central New York state, &c.

530. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé en la Mission des pères de la Compagnie de Jésus, au pays de la Nouvelle France, es Années 1655 & 1656. Envoyée au R. P. Louys Cellot, Provincial de la Compagnie de Jésus, en la Province de France. Small 8vo, full maroon morocco, gilt back, Lenox arms stamped on both covers, gilt edges, library stamps of the Bibliotheque Nationale on title and final page, Lenox library duplicate stamp on verso of title.

Paris: Sebastien et Gabriel Cramoisy, 1657

In the absence of Le Mercier, Father de Quen writes this Relation, which chiefly concerns the new Onandaga mission started the year previous. He mentions, also, the unusually early opening of the waters for commerce, saying that "for the first time in twenty years vessels have not reached this country so early," the confirmation of the general peace at Quebec, gives a description of the superstitious rites of the Onandagas, their "festival of fools" (Ononhonaroia), their war preparations, &c., the journey to the Ottawas in the country adjacent to the lower end of Lake Huron, or as known then, "Mer Douce," concluding with a panegyric upon the life and labors of Father Garreau, killed by the Iroquois about the time de Quen sends forth his Relation.

FINE COPY.

531. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé de plus remarquable aux Missions des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus en la Nouvelle France és années 1661 & 1662. Envoyée au R. P. André Castillon, Provincial de la Province de France. Small 8vo, full limp vellum, a few stains on margins.

Paris: Sebastien Cramoisy et Sebast. Mabre-Cramoisy, 1663

THIS SCARCE RELATION was forwarded to France by Jerome Lalemant from Quebec, September 18, 1662. Contains much unusual data relative to the incursions by the Iroquois far to the south,—"even four hundred leagues,"—among "reeds as tall as oaks, in the trunks of which live large bears, which feed upon the pith; Indian corn with ears two feet long, and grains as large as Muscatel grapes, &c." and in a vague way an account is given of the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers and the Spaniards.

Chapter VII. apparently is a supplementary paper, perhaps by Le Jeune, and depicts the hostilities waged by the Micmacs of Gaspé against some of the Montagnais north of the St. Lawrence.

Paris: Sebastien Cramoisy, & Sebast. Mabre-Cramoisy, 1666

Le Mercier, the writer of this report, relates very fully the circumstances connected with Tracy's commission to visit all the French possessions in America, his reception in Quebec, the arrival of a Frenchman from Lake Superior who gives information of the Indians beyond that great inland sea, an account of Nouvel's second journey to Lake Manikouagan, in Labrador, and devotes a chapter to two comets visible at Quebec during the winter of 1664-5, and tells of the arrival of the first horses in the colony.

Does not contain the letter from the Ursuline superior, which, however, was not inserted by the printer in all copies of this Relation.

533. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé de plus remarquable aux Missions des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus en la Nouvelle France, aux années mil six cens soixante-sept & mil six cens soixante-huit. Envoyée au R. P. Estienne Dechamps, Provincial de la Province de France. Small 8vo, boards, morocco back, title and some leaves and their margins stained.

Paris: Sebastien Mabre-Cramoisy, 1669

There is no date to this Relation of Le Mercier's, and the volume has neither the "Permission" nor the "Privilege." This is the first Relation carrying the name Sebastien Mabre-Cramoisy, and the last to have the vignette of Storks on title, &c. Pages 168-219 contain the "Lettre Circulaire" from the Mother Superior Marie de S. Bonneventure de Jesus, which has been reprinted from the exceedingly rare original (Barlow Catalogue, No. 1469) reporting the death of the Reverend Mother Catherine de S. Augustin (of Quebec).

Le Mercier commences by stating that missions have been established among all the five Iroquois nations, who now stand in wholesome fear of the French, that new settlements are springing up all along the St. Lawrence, that agriculture is flourishing, that under the government of Courcelles the hunting of game has become safe again, that a brewery has been established in the province of Quebec which, it is believed, will cause a decrease in the drinking habits of the Indians, &c. Then follow the "Lettre Circulaire," and a short article praising the work of the nuns.

534. JESUIT RELATIONS. Relation de ce qui s'est passé de plus remarquable aux Missions des Pères de la Compagnie de Jésus en la Nouvelle France, les années 1671 & 1672. Envoyée au R. P. Jean Pinette, Provincial de la Province de France. Par le R. P. Claude Dablon, Recteur du Collège de Quebec, & Supérieur des Missions de la Compagnie de Jésus en la Nouvelle France. Small 8vo, full mottled calf, gilt back, a short line of old writing at bottom of title page, lacks map at pp. 110-111. Paris: Sébastien Mabre-Cramoisy, 1673

This is the final Relation of the regular "Cramoisy" series, and the last to be contemporaneously published, for reasons said to be still undetermined. Relation is a composite, and consists of three parts. Dablon's prefatory note announces the departure of Courcelles and Talon for France, and the arrival of Count de Frontenac, Albanel's discovery of the land route to Hudson Bay, the departure of Marquette for the "south sea," and the discovery of a copper mine at Lake Superior.

Relation ends with an account of "the holy death" of Madame de la Peltrie and that of Mother Marie de l'Incarnation, the former the foundress, the latter the first superior of the Ursuline convent at Quebec.

Ouvrage accompagné d'une Carte Géographique levée sur les lieux par l'auteur, en 1820. 8vo, half morocco, joints rubbed.

Paris, 1821

VERY SCARCE. While Sabin mentions this work, he evidently did not know its author. The volume contains advice to those who contemplate visiting Kentucky, describes that country and the Genesee, giving names of early settlers, their tribulations with the Indians, the condition of agriculture, &c., and quotes a letter of Daniel Boone (pp. 87-133) to the Comte de Lafayette, dated "Au Kentoukey, December 19, 1783," in which Boone tells how he, in 1769, renounced family, friends, and home, and together with John Finley, Joseph Holden, and others started out to explore the unknown wilderness, &c.

557. Kossuth (LOUIS—eminent Hungarian orator and statesman). A.L.S.
4pp. 4to. Exile Rusutina (?) (Asia Minor). May 31, 1851. To Millard Fillmore.

A letter of unusual interest and importance, with autograph endorsement of Millard Fillmore, as follows: "Louis Kossuth, May 31, July 21, 1851. Rel. to application of the U. S. for his release."

The letter commences: "Mr. President.

"Penetrated as I always was by the conviction that it is only the eternal principles of freedom, realized by popular democratic institutions, which can afford a sure basis to the prosperity of nations . . . my whole political life was guided by the leading aim to see my country blessed by a political organization founded upon those great principles which have raised in so short a period the U. States to a degree of greatness, happiness and prosperity, unexampled in history.

" . . . Treason has aided the combined forces of the mightiest two despots of the world to crush down for a moment our sacred design. But nothing in the world will succeed to shake the resolution of Hungary . . . I was weak enough to trust their sworn promises to be faithful and righteous to my land, so by an excess of loyalty it is three years ago I have saved the house of Austria, every corner of its power was tottering, and it was given by almighty God in my humble hands to blow it asunder like a handful of chaff.

" . . . But on reading Mr. Webster's noble proclamation of hope and wishes for the triumphant propagation of those great principles, your country has so gloriously realized, and we have struggled for, on reading the firm declaration, that the U. S. will always continue warmly to feel for those who honestly struggle against oppression . . . Such words issued from the Capitol of America are like a revelation to mankind.

" . . . Whatever be my fate, the memory of your and your country's generosity, will for ever be the chief consolation of my life." etc., with mention again of Daniel Webster, American affairs in Turkey, etc.

Paris: P. F. Giffart, 1722

The most copious work known upon the Antilles, very full as to details on their Natural History, Productions, &c. Gives an account of the Caribs, the last remnant of whom the author visited in 1694, finding then but a scant fifty of them alive.

560. LABRADOR. "Concerning Labrador." An Account of Labrador, dated Feb. 1772, no place (but probably London), and no author's name. pp.[1]-4, unbound. Exceedingly scarce.

It commences, "There is a wild nation of Savages, the Eskimos, on the coast of Labrador, on the continent of North America, opposite Newfoundland, who have for many years been accustomed to rob and murder the English." Then follow accounts of the missions of the Moravians and names of missionaries, etc.*

564. LAFITAU (P. J. FRANÇOIS). Mœurs des Sauvages Amériquains, Compares aux Mœurs des Premiers Temps. Illustrated with 43 folding plates, including maps and views of Indian ceremonies, &c. 2 vols. 4to, half morocco.
Paris, 1724
That America was peopled by the inhabitants of Asia and Europe who came through Behring Strait, which connected Asia and America, is the contention of this author. To prove his theories, he gives many comparisons of the ceremonies of the Indians, particularly the Iroquois, with those of ancient Greece, the East, &c. Charlevoix considered this work of great historic worth, and says,—“We have nothing so exact upon the subject of which he treats. His parallel of the ancient nations and the American Indians is very ingenious.” FINE COPY.
565. LAFITAU (P. J. FRANÇOIS). Mœurs des Sauvages Amériquains, Compares aux Mœurs des Premiers Temps. With 41 plates of Indian ceremonies, &c. 4 vols. 12mo, original sprinkled calf, considerably worn, a number of plates torn, some leaves foxed, and portions of text burned away.
Paris, 1724
566. LAHONTAN (BARON DE). New Voyages to North America. Containing an Account of the Several Nations of that vast Continent; their Customs, Commerce, and Way of Navigation upon the Lakes and Rivers; the Several attempts of the English and French to Dispossess one another; with the Reasons of the Miscarriage of the Former; and the various Adventures between the French and the Iroquese Confederates of England, from 1683-1694. . . . To which is added a Dictionary of the Algonkine Language. Illustrated with 23 maps and cuts, engraved by H. Moll. 2 vols. 8vo, half brown morocco, name stamped on 1 title, several plates damaged and repaired, a portion of map of New France mended.
London: H. Bonwicke, &c., 1703

THE RARE FIRST EDITION IN ENGLISH, translated from the First French Edition of 1703-1704. Contains the results of the Baron's observations during a twenty years' residence in Canada, &c., and relates largely to the manners and customs of the Indians with whom he mingled. Lahontan was the first person to make known among the Redmen, the existence of the Rocky Mountains, the Columbia River, and the Pacific Ocean. Pages 287-302 incorporate a dictionary of the Algonkin language. The two large folding maps are backed with linen.

567. LAHONTAN (BARON DE). Voyages du La Hontan dans l'Amérique Septentrionale, Qui contiennent une Relation des differens Peuples qui y habitent, la Nature de leur Gouvernement, &c.: Mémoires de l'Amérique Septentrionale ou la Suite des Voyages de M. De la Hontan; Dialogues de Monsieur le Baron de Lahontan et d'un Sauvage; Voyages . . . en Portugal et en Danemarc. Over 23 maps and plates. 4 vols. in 1, small 8vo, full sprinkled calf, gilt back.
La Haye, 1706; Amsterdam, 1704; &c.
Second Edition of the "Voyages." Contains an Indian vocabulary.
568. LAHONTAN (BARON DE). Nouveaux Voyages dans l'Amérique Septentrionale, qui contient une relation des differens Peuples qui y habitent, la nature de leur Gouvernement, &c. With 27 maps and plates. 2 vols. small 8vo, old mottled calf, stains on a number of leaves as usual.
A La Haye: Les frères l'Honore, 1715
Good sound copy, with some of the plates repeated, and the altered title in Volume II. Presentation copy from Alphonse Le Couteulx, with his autograph inscription on fly-leaves of both volumes.
569. LAKE CHAMPLAIN. Palmer (Peter S.). History of Lake Champlain, from its First Exploration by the French in 1609, to the Close of the Year 1814. 8vo, cloth, uncut and unopened.

To which are added Biographical Notices and Anecdotes of some of the Leading Characters in the United States.* Second Edition, Corrected and Improved. Map, and numerous COLORED PLATES. 2 vols. half calf, binding poor, but plates and text in good condition.
London, 1813
A SCARCE WORK WITH THE COMPLETE SERIES OF COLORED PLATES. Describes Quebec, the Plains of Abraham, Climate, &c., of Lower Canada, Settlement of the French in the Dominion, the Fur Trade, Indians, &c.
572. [LA PEROUSE (J. F. G. DE).] Voyage in Search of La Perouse, Performed by Order of the Constituent Assembly, during the years 1791-1794, and drawn up by M. Labillardière. Translated from the French. Folding map and 46 plates, including portraits of savages, views of the Friendly Islands, cuts of products, animals, &c. 2 vols. 8vo, half calf.
London, 1800
The enterprising but ill-fated La Perouse mysteriously disappeared at Botany Bay some time in 1788-9, and was never again heard of. The manuscript of his narrative, the first English edition of which was published in 1799, was forwarded from that place. The volumes here catalogued form a valuable addition to the work of La Perouse, and include a vocabulary of the Malay language.

573. LA SALLE (ROBERT DE). Découvertes et Établissements de Cavelier de la Salle de Rouen dans l'Amérique du Nord. Par Gabriel Gravier. Maps, and La Salle's coat-of-arms in gold and colors. Royal 8vo, half morocco, gilt, gilt top. Rouen, 1870

Valuable for the descriptions of the Middle West and the Valley of the Mississippi.

574. LAS CASAS (BARTHOLOME DE). Brevissima Relacion de la Destruycion de las Indias: colegida por el Obispo don Fray Bartolome de las Casas, ó Casaus, de la Orden de Santo Domingo. Title within wood-cut border, with circular device of the sun. Small 4to, limp vellum, uncut. Ano 1552

Las Casas' first and most celebrated tract, relating the cruelties of the Spaniards towards the Indians. From the S. L. M. Barlow collection with his bookplate. The Barlow catalogue states that this edition was published by Antonio Lacaualleria, of Barcelona, 1646, and that this copy lacks title and Leaf of License following. Also, mentions some errors in pagination which, with one exception, collate with the item here catalogued.

Against this opinion is that of H[enry] H[arris]e, who has autographed the following note on fly-leaf:

"I scarcely know what to think of this edition. It has a Venetian look about it, which baffles all my suppositions, If a reprint or piratical edition of the Las Casas tracts, and consequently of a later period, why does it contain only the first six? &c., &c."

575. LATROBE (CHARLES J.). The Rambler in America: 1832-1833. 2 vols. 12mo, original cloth, cover of one volume loose, and several leaves damaged. London, 1835

The work is dedicated by the author to Washington Irving with whom he traveled the prairies. Many personal observations of Indian life are noted.

576. LE BEAU (C.) Avantures du Sr. C. Le Beau, Avocat en Parlement, ou Voyage Curieux et Nouveau, Parmi les Sauvages de l'Amérique Septentrionale. Dans le Quel on trouvera une Description du Canada, avec une Relation tres particulière des anciennes Coutumes, Moeurs & Façons de vivre des Barbares qui l'habitent & de la manière dont ils se comportent aujourd'hui. Maps and 6 plates. 2 vols. small 8vo, half old calf, gilt, somewhat rubbed, some leaves water-stained. Amsterdam: Herman Uytwerf, 1738

Includes descriptions of Canada and of the manners and customs of the Algonquins, Iroquois, Hurons, and other Indians, derived from the author's personal experience among them.

577. LE CLERCQ (CHRÉTIEN). Premier Établissement / de la Foy / dans la Nouvelle France, / contenant la Publication / de l'Evangile, l'His-toire des Colonies Françoises, & les fameuses découvertes depuis / le Fleuve de Saint Laurent, la Louisiane / & le Fleuve Colbert jusqu'au Golphe / Mexique, achevées sous la conduite de / Feu Monsieur de la Salle. / Par Ordre du Roy. / Avec les victoires / remportées en Canada par les armes de Sa Majesté sur les Anglois & les Iroquois / en 1690. / [Second Title a repetition of this.] With folding map of "Nouvelle France ou est compris La Louisiane Gaspesie, &c., 1692

[1]," engraved by Boudan, slightly repaired. 2 vols. small Svo, half morocco, portions of joints weak, some leaves stained.

Paris: Chez Amable Auroy, 1691

THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION WITH THE TITLES OF BOTH VOLUMES AS FIRST ISSUED. The Table of Chapters is misbound in Volume II., and lacking the 20pp. of "Catalogue des Livres." The map was issued, probably, the same year as the work itself, and is not 1692 although the final figure may look like a "2."

One reason for the great scarcity of this work is because of the fact of its suppression by the French Government soon after its publication, owing, probably, to its containing many very severe animadversions upon the labors of the Jesuit Priests, by the author, who was a Franciscan Father.

Contains the first original narrative of the discoveries of La Salle by two Recollect missionaries who accompanied him. Hennepin drew from this the account of his pretended discovery of the Mississippi River.

The volumes comprise (I.) Sketch of the Recollect Missions in Canada from 1615 to the capture of Quebec by Kirk in 1629, with a satire on the Jesuits; (II.) Accounts of the religious condition of the Colony,—De Tracy's operations against the Iroquois,—the return of the Recollects to Canada,—and narration of La Salle's discoveries.

I believe I have never assigned to you the reasons of my not accepting your proposition for paying the Indian annuities. On examining the deed of cession I find it necessary there should be two agents, one on the part of the State and one on that of the U. S.," etc.
589. LEWIS AND CLARK. Travels to the Source of the Missouri River, and across the American Continent to the Pacific Ocean. Performed by order of the Government of the United States in 1804-1806. Published from the Official Report. A New Edition. Large folding map of the route (backed with linen), and other maps. 3 vols. 8vo, half calf, somewhat stained as is usual, & binding worn.

London, 1817

The best work known on the countries described, including many minute details relative to the manners and habits of the North American Indians. This edition is edited by Thomas Rees, and, according to Sabin, is a reproduction in larger type and on better paper of the Philadelphia edition of 1814, with a few omissions.

590. LEZAY-MARNEZIA (CL. FR. AD. DE). Lettres Ecrites des Rives de L'Ohio, par Cl. Fr. Ad. de Lezay-Marnezia, Citoyen de Pensylvanie. Small title vignette. 8vo, half morocco, slightly rubbed, UNCUT. Au Fort-Pitt, Et se trouvent A Paris, Chez Prault. An IX de la Republique (1800-1801).

THESE LETTERS, OWING TO THEIR SUPPRESSION BY THE POLICE OF FRANCE, HAVE BECOME OF THE UTMOST RARITY. Sabin knew of but two copies, one of them being in the library of the University of Harvard. There is a copy in the New York Public Library, with a dozen lines of Errata in ink on the verso of the half-title, but with the title itself a photographic reproduction of the title of the Harvard copy.

The author was, in 1789, a liberal member of the States General of France, and writes these letters from America which place had, evidently, become his permanent home, he signing himself a "Citizen of Pennsylvania." There are three letters in the volume: (1) to the Chevalier Bouflers, dated Marietta, November 15, 1790; (2) to Bernardin de Saint Pierre, the well-known author of "Paul and Virginia," dated Fort Pitt, November 2, 1791; and, (3) to his son, Adrien, dated Philadelphia, December 15, 1791.

The reason for the suppression of these letters may be readily discovered by a perusal of their contents wherein the author will be found unsparing in his denunciation of the government and the nobility of France and their treatment of the common people, and drawing frequent analogies between the governments of France and the United States, much to the advantage of the former.

635. [MARSHALL (ORSAMUS H.).] Index Rerum, or, Index of Subjects intended as a Manual to aid the Student and the Professional Man. 4to, half morocco. Northampton, 1834

The Index contains THOUSANDS OF ENTRIES on historical events, the Indians, etc., IN THE AUTOGRAPH OF ORSAMUS H. MARSHALL. The work is evidently one covering many years, and is a remarkable tribute to the wide knowledge of literature pertaining to Western New York and Canada that Mr. Marshall had, as references are made to hundreds of books, old and modern, and in various languages, also to maps.

Under the captions of "Niagara" and "Niagara Falls," there are almost one hundred and twenty references, which include the following specimens: "Niagara. Its different names. Smith. N. York, p. 220, vol. 2 and vol. 1, p. 220." "Niagara, written 'Ongniaahra,' Rela. [Jesuit Relations], 1640-1, p. 65." "Niagara, called 'Ongiara Cataracts,' Ducreivx, Historia Canadensis, A. D., 1660," etc.

OF GREAT HISTORICAL VALUE. A manuscript notation by C. Sidney Shepard reads: "These notations were made by Orsamus H. Marshall, Esq. Attest, dated, September 12, 1908, C. Sidney Shepard."

Various places, various dates

761. PARKMAN (FRANCIS). L.S. 4pp. small 4to. Boston, May 6, 1849. To O. H. Marshall, Buffalo, New York, with addressed portion of envelope.

"I have the honor to enclose to you a letter of introduction from Mr. E. G. Squier . . . an excellent opportunity of gaining the acquaintance of a gentleman who has engaged so deeply and successfully in studies which for many years have been my favourite pursuits. For some time past, I have entertained the plan of writing at some future period, a general history of the Indians. . . . I have collected a great mass of materials, illustrating the period immediately succeeding the Old French War. . . . My studies have been almost wholly interrupted for more than two years by the state of my health," etc.

762. PARKMAN (FRANCIS). History of the Conspiracy of Pontiac, and the War of the North American Tribes against the English Colonies after the Conquest of Canada. Maps. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, original cloth. Boston, 1851

Autograph presentation copy from Parkman with inscription: "O. H. Marshall, Esq., with the respects of the Author."

763. PARKMAN (FRANCIS). L.S. 3pp. small 4to. Boston, March 17, 1851. [To O. H. Marshall, Buffalo, New York.]

" . . . I have a book in the printer's hands. . . . It relates to the period of the Conquest of Canada . . . the manuscript materials employed in it amount to between four and five thousand pages. . . . I have commenced the preparation of a series of essays on the early Roman Catholic missions among the Indians, their character, the causes of their failure," etc., etc.

764. PARKMAN (FRANCIS). L.S. 2pp. 4to, Boston, June 14, 1851. [To O. H. Marshall.]

" . . . I received your kind letter touching the Jesuits a month or two since," etc.

765. PARKMAN (FRANCIS). A.L.S. 2pp. 4to, with "P.S." also in his autograph, and with initials, Boston, September 12, 1851. To O. H. Marshall.

"I have just sent you the copy of the 'Conspiracy of Pontiae,' which I hope will reach you safely. With regard to the matter of La Salle's vessels, though I feel the force of the observations in your article on the subject, it seems to me that on the whole the balance of evidence inclines to the western side. . . . I mean to continue my researches into the early French history, and shall be greatly obliged by any suggestions upon the subject," etc., with mention of an invitation to attend the council of the Six Nations.

766. PARKMAN (FRANCIS). A.L.S. 1p. 12mo, October 26, 1851.

"I beg to thank you for the very kind notice of 'Pontiac' from your pen, which reached me a few days ago. The book has been quite well received by the press, but a notice like yours from a person who understands the subject is ten times more acceptable than the most flowery eulogies from the ordinary newspaper critics."

767. PARKMAN (FRANCIS). Pioneers of France in the New World. Map and portrait. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, original cloth. Boston, 1865.

Presentation copy from the author with inscription (not in his autograph), "O. H. Marshall, Esq. From the Author."

774. PARKMAN (FRANCIS). A.L.S. 3pp. 12mo. Boston, March 27, 1882.
To O. H. Marshall.

"Mr. Ed. G. Mason of Chicago sent me Shea's foolish judgment on La Salle. It is mere prejudice, groundless and unworthy. La Salle's life and letters, tell their own story in a language unmistakable. . . . Spofford's delays are unpardonable. Henry Stevens said to me last summer, "They say I am the worst correspondent in the world, but they lie." Spofford beats me all hollow . . . Montcalm gets on . . . finding needles in a haystack needs time and patience," etc.

778. PARSONS (SAMUEL H.—American general, obtained from Benedict Arnold an account of the condition of Ticonderoga, and the number of its cannon, one of the board that tried Major André, succeeded Israel Putnam in command of the Connecticut line). A.L.S. 8 pages 4to. Roxbury, July 5, 1775. To Col. [later Major-General] James Wadsworth, with outside sheet, bearing name and address of recipient in autograph of writer, this however is much worn.

AN IMPORTANT REVOLUTIONARY DOCUMENT, WRITTEN SOME WEEKS AFTER THE WRITER'S PROJECTED PLAN TO CAPTURE FORT TICONDEROGA, ON INFORMATION GLEANED FROM BENEDICT ARNOLD WHILE ON A JOURNEY TO HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT, AND WITH MENTION OF GENERALS WASHINGTON, PUTNAM, and others.

"The order lately given by the Gov. and Committee Subjecting the Connecticut Forces to the Command of the Massachusetts Commander in Chief has given great uneasiness . . . In the next place 'tis said here that General Ward is under the absolute Dominion of General Putnam and this order eventually subjects us to the Control of him and thereby virtually subordinates General Spencer to his inferior in Command: Tho' we all acknowledge Putnam's merrit yet none of us can prefer him to Genl. Spencer as a Commander . . . It may at first be tho't the appointment of Genl. Washington will remove the Difficulty but perhaps it will be tho't not best to Subordinate our troops to him until he is appointed by our Assembly and Commission . . . If Genl. Washington whose character is very good, should be appointed Generalissimo of our troops Genl. Spencer must be appointed a Major General or he will necessarily be subordinated to all the Genls. and Brigadiers in this Station . . . I have wrote this in Confidence that you will not let it be seen or known to any Person but my Friends who will make no other use of it than to get the knowledge of the Facts" . . . The Acct. of the Battle at Charlestown is now become an old Story. A Cannonade was kept up from about 4 o'clock till 10 o'clock last Sunday on Roxbury they burried one house and barn but did no other damage. The Interposition of Heaven is most evident in the Charlestown battle in preserving our Troops and destroying the Enemy, etc."*

London, 1712

THE SCARCE WORK ON WHICH DEFOE FOUNDED HIS "ROBINSON CRUSOE," and one of the earliest accounts in English of California and the Indians there. The celebrated Captain William Dampier acted as pilot on this voyage, and with Rogers and his crew of adventurers, captured Puna and Guayaquil, acquiring much booty thereby, and several ships, one off the coast of California, by which they increased their supply of riches still further. The famous Selkirk was rescued by Rogers from his island home and made mate of the ship.

824. ROGERS (MAJOR ROBERT). A Concise Account of North America: Containing a Description of the several British Colonies on that Continent, including the Islands of Newfoundland, Cape Breton, &c. . . . also of the Westerly Parts of the Country, upon the Rivers St. Lawrence, the Mississippi, Christino, and the Great Lakes, to which is subjoined an Account of the several Nations and Tribes of Indians residing in those Parts, &c. 8vo, half morocco, N. Y. S. Library duplicate, with stamp on verso of title.

London: Printed for the Author, 1765

RARE FIRST EDITION. This account of the well-known French and Indian War fighter, takes up considerable space in the presentation of numerous details concerning the various Indian tribes, including the White Indians along the shores of the "Father of Waters," who are "much the fairest Indians on the continent [with] Indian eyes . . . use no weapons but bows and arrows . . . live in large towns, &c." This narrative is the result of Rogers' personal observations entirely.

825. ROGERS (MAJOR ROBERT). Journals of Major Rogers: containing an Account of the several Excursions he made under the Generals who commanded upon the Continent of North America, during the Late War. From which may by (sic) collected the most material Circumstances of every Campaign upon that Continent, from the Commencement to the Conclusion of the War. 8vo, half morocco.

London: Printed for the Author, 1765

FINE COPY OF THIS SCARCE WORK. Contains accounts of the border skirmishes during the French and Indian War, and particularly of those which occurred in the centre of action,—the debatable ground between Forts Ticonderoga and Crown Point. It may be noted that Rogers took a prominent part in the settlement of this War, being assigned the dangerous task of taking possession of the Western Outposts after the terms of surrender.

A Paris: Chez Denys Moreau, 1632

BEAUTIFUL COPY OF THIS RARE AND IMPORTANT WORK, which Sabin states is,—“rarely found in good condition and perfect in every respect.” This copy is in more than “good condition”—it is in EXCEPTIONALLY FINE CONDITION. Collates with Sabin.

A volume of great interest and significance written by a Franciscan Father who was sent out from Old France to the Indians of New France, in 1623-4, being stationed about 150 leagues from Quebec. His privations and sufferings, however, were too heavy for him to bear and he was ordered back to his convent in Paris about a year after his arrival in Canada, and soon afterwards commenced the work above catalogued (1632) and another,—“Histoire du Canada,” which was issued in 1636.

Sagard was the annalist of the earlier Canada missions of that branch of the Franciscan Order known as Recollects (among whom was Father Chrétien Le Clercq), who were the first clergy of the colony founded by Champlain, who visited what is now Ontario, and New York, and later were generally chaplains at the French forts throughout the country.

844. SCHOOLCRAFT (HENRY R.). A.L.S. 2pp. 4to. Washington, October 21st, 1847. To O. H. Marshall.
". . . I should be pleased if you would draw up a sketch of the History of the Senecas, giving due attention to and of the principal points, about which we are most in the dark, namely, their feud with the Wyandots. They were the people to whom Red Jacket said, at Brownstown in 1811, that they had 'held on by the bushes,' when they were driven out," etc.
845. SCHOOLCRAFT (HENRY R.). The American Indians, their History, Condition and Prospects, from Original Notes and Manuscripts. With Appendix containing Thrilling Narratives, Daring Exploits, &c. New Revised Edition. Portraits. 8vo, cloth. Buffalo, 1851

Eastman, MANY OF WHICH ARE IN COLORS, including views, portraits, ancient pottery, picture writing, alphabets, spear and arrow heads, cooking utensils, and many other subjects.* 6 vols, thick 4to, half morocco, gilt tops, binding slightly rubbed and stained. Philadelphia, 1851-1857
Of this great ethnological achievement, Mr. Wilberforce Eames, himself a noted authority on matters relating to the American Indians, says: "It is one of the most important and complete works ever written on the aborigines of America, having been prepared under the direction of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and published by authority of Congress. It has performed a very important service for Indian history in collecting and preserving an immense amount of historic data, including vocabularies of Indian languages, grammatical analyses, legends of various tribes, biographies of chiefs and warriors, narratives of captivities, histories of Indian wars, &c." NOT THE LEAST IMPORTANT PART OF THE WORK IS THE EXTRAORDINARY NUMBER OF FINE PLATES, ILLUSTRATING EVERY PHASE OF INDIAN LIFE AND MANNERS.

847. SCHOOLCRAFT (HENRY R.). A.L.S. 3pp. 4to. Philadelphia, January 8th, 1854. To O. H. Marshall.

Relative to his monumental work on the American Indians [see number 846] ". . . I have nearly completed the publication of my last volume, and expect to return to Washington in a few days. My whole time, day in and day out, has been devoted to this work, for the last seven years. I began it, on a long experience in the West, devoted to their languages, manners, customs, and antiquities. Nobody could feel a deeper interest than I do, to make a fair and just record of this race, who are passing before our eyes, and if I do not succeed in the effort, it will not be, I fancy, for the want of zeal on my part . . . John Blacksmith was one of the most respectable and sensible Indians I ever knew," etc.

848. SCHOOLCRAFT (HENRY R.). Summary Narrative of an Exploratory Expedition to the Sources of the Mississippi River in 1820; Resumed and Completed by the Discovery of its Origin in Itaska Lake in 1832. Maps. 8vo, cloth. Philadelphia, 1855

The Appendices contain the original report on the Copper Mines of Lake Superior, and all the Official reports and papers of both expeditions.

849. SCHULTZ (CHRISTIAN, Jr.). Travels on an Inland Voyage through the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee, &c., in 1807 and 1808. Portrait, plan, and maps, all somewhat foxyed. 2 vols. in 1, 8vo, tree calf.

New York: Isaac Riley, 1810

Written, in part, to refute certain statements made by Thomas Ash in his work "Travels in America," which, according to Schultz, "Abounds in mistakes, misrepresentations, and fictions in almost every page."

850. SCOTT (WINFIELD—General). A.L.S. 2pp. 12mo. n.p.n.d. To Millard Fillmore. Regarding a party to which the president's daughter had been invited.

851. SCRAP BOOK. A 4to scrap book in old half roan, containing a large number of newspaper clippings, mainly from Buffalo newspapers; The Volunteer, numbers 1-5, Feb., 1864, and probably all issued; various theatre and concert programmes issued about 1865-66; Proclamation by the Mayor, Buffalo, July 23, 1877; various maps, skillfully drawn with pencil, by Lizzie C. Marshall; three bills, 1, 2 and 3 dollars on the Bank of Niagara, 1823, etc. The scrap book presumably made by Miss Marshall.

852. SECRET SPRINGS (THE), of the late Changes in the Ministry, fairly explained. By An Honest Man. In answer To the Abuse and Misrepresentations of a pretended Son of Candor, with an Introductory Letter to the Printer of the Public Advertiser. 8vo, unbound, pp. 68. London, 1766

"By an Act passed during the late session of the Legislature of this State, I have been authorized to make such contract as I shall judge proper with the Seneca Indians, or their Agents for the purchase of the Islands within this State situate in the Niagara River between Lake Erie and the falls.

"The claim of Sir John Johnson to Grand Island I have heretofore mentioned to you . . . The Treaty between this Country and Great Britain establishes the Territorial line to be along the middle of the water communication between Lakes Ontario and Erie . . . I will therefore thank you to inform me whether Buffaloe, Batavia, Genesee, Canandaigua or Geneva will be most agreeable to the Seneca Indians as the place of meeting," etc.

938. TONTI (CHEVALIER H. DE). Dernieres Découvertes dans l'Amérique Septentrionale de M. De La Sale; Mises au jour par M. le Chevalier Tonti, Gouverneur du Fort Saint Louis, aux Illinois. Small 8vo, mottled calf, gilt. A Paris au Palais; Chez Jean Guignard, 1691

THE EXCEEDINGLY SCARCE ORIGINAL EDITION, A COPY OF WHICH HAS NOT BEEN OFFERED BY AUCTION IN THIS COUNTRY SINCE THE MURPHY SALE IN 1884.

De Tonty was La Salle's most trusted lieutenant and shared his fortunes until the latter's death. It was De Tonty who directed the building of the Griffon whose mysterious disappearance is a matter of history; and it was he who in 1688 went down the Mississippi at the risk of his life to seek and rescue La Salle only to find that his chief had been treacherously slain.

"I have thought it possible that you may do me the honour to accept the original Reverse of my Alfred medal, as well as the second Reverse already in your possession . . . I devised that second design in order to do equal honour to America & my own country, and that both might stand side by side, & not the name or flag of either nation stand one above the other," etc.
947. TUPPER (MARTIN F.). A.L.S. 4pp. 12mo. Albury, England, September 11, 1851. To Millard Fillmore, when President. Also Mr. Tupper's card, with words "For Mr. Fillmore" in his autograph.
"Much Respected & Dear Sir,
"I have several times thought of writing to tell your friendly home party how well I found all at home on my return . . . The worthy Elliott Cresson, during a little visit just paid to me at Albany, induced me in the course of conversation to write a stave, calling upon America to recognize Liberia. I wrote it at once, as within. Since its date, the Cuban business has come to our ears . . . It will give the colored race hope, and even ambition. Have I your forgiveness, & that of Mr. Webster's (to whom I beg to offer my respects) for so much voluntary intrusion," etc.
